ATTORNEY GENERAL'S SUMMER LEGAL INTERN PROGRAM

STATUS: Paid Internship

HRS/WK: 40 SALARY: $15.00 hr.

DEPARTMENT: Office of Attorney General

JOB LOCATION: Sells, AZ

OPENING DATE: May 25, 2018

CLOSING DATE: June 11, 2018

The Office of Attorney General (OAG) is hiring two (2) Interns, for an exciting eight (8) week Summer Internship that starts on June 18, 2018 and continues through August 10, 2018.

The Office of Attorney General represents the interests of the Tohono O'odham Nation in tribal, state, and federal venues. Attorneys and staff in the office enjoy a diverse practice and challenging jurisdictional issues while protecting the sovereignty of the Nation. The OAG is committed to investing in the next generation of Native leaders. An internship with the OAG offers a unique opportunity for young Tohono O'odham students with an interest in tribal legal affairs, to help the Nation with legislative efforts, legal advocacy, research and analysis, and policy development from within the Nation's top legal agency. Duties will vary, depending on the nature of the issues being addressed by the OAG and the interests and experience each student brings to the position. Legal Interns will have an opportunity to attend legislative committee hearings, attend meetings of attorneys and departments that work on government matters related to the Nation's priorities; research and analyze important issues; assist attorneys and staff; and perform additional duties to support the work of the OAG.

Qualifications: The Office of Attorney General invites college students in good standing, who are enrolled in institutions of higher learning to apply for the summer-long internship. Minimum requirements include a valid Arizona driver's license. The internship program is open to applicants who are members of the Tohono O'odham Nation. Preference will be given to enrolled members of the Tohono O'odham Nation, followed by enrolled members of other nation's or tribes.

Students are invited to apply by submitting a resume and a letter of interest to: Alfred Urbina, Assistant Attorney General, Office of Attorney General, P.O. Box 830, Sells, AZ 85634, telephone no. (520) 383-3410, email address: alfred.urbina@tonation-nsn.gov.
