

Interested in Becoming A Judge for the Phoenix Municipal Court?

Please Join Councilman Michael Nowakowski
and Chief Presiding Judge Don Taylor

For a “Brown Bag” on the Judicial Recruitment and Appointment Process for the Phoenix Municipal Court

The Phoenix Municipal Court has a history of representing the diversity of the community among its judicial officers and staff. As one of the largest limited jurisdiction courts in the nation, the Court is proud of that history and is committed to ensuring that the residents of Phoenix continue to see a cross section of the community represented on the bench. The Court is currently recruiting for two judicial vacancies.
